Everywhere Things Are CHANGING...

Changes are vital! If nothing changed everything would be the same, all the time. Everywhere — HOW BORING!!! This year Memorial experienced some of these changes that make school life interesting, fun, and challenging.

Mr. Bill Bond joined the administrative staff as principal this fall. This change, though it seemed small, made a big difference. Mr. Bond feels that it is important to get to know the students. Because of this he is frequently seen in the halls, at football games, basketball games, swim meets, and wrestling duels.

Another change in the administrative staff included the addition of Mr. Nicholas Ritter as the vice-principal of Academics. Perhaps he is most evident in a senior's life as he looks back through the past four years and decides whether or not a person has enough credits to graduate.

What are some of the other changes at Memorial this year?

Open lunch — This means everyone, including freshmen! (if they can get a ride).

Lunch schedule — This was also changed, as students made the adjustment to two lunch periods of forty minutes instead of four periods of thirty-five minutes.

Shorts — A long-awaited privilege for Memorial students. The walking-length shorts were finally considered acceptable this year.

No Advisory — Second semester school began at 8:00. This meant homeroom was only held when needed at the end of first hour. It also meant rolling out of bed fifteen minutes earlier.

No Smoking — Smoking, a habit for some Memorial students, was abolished this year. Smokers would have to find another place to fulfill their nicotine addiction.

The changes are still happening, take a look around and you will see new things right before your eyes EVERYWHERE!! A

Mr. Bond speaks to the Senior class about the 1987-1988 school year.

Kathy Lee, Holly Pauling and Stephanie Barrett (all freshmen) succeed in getting that ride to lunch.

"We wear short shorts!" Steve Snedden and Kathi Orvis model the new walking shorts rule.

Mr. Ritter hard at work has time to stop for a picture.

8:05 — YOU ARE LATE!! If this is the time you waltz into school — you've missed out on five minutes of first hour. N-O-S-M-O-K-I-N-G — no smoking!!! Christy Trombold shows the abolishment of cigarettes and other tobacco products at Memorial.

IN THE NEWS

News events made it big this year! Money makers, heroes, and even questions of morality hit the headlines in newspapers, and even magazines. Some of this years biggest news events include:

Pope John Paul II: The pope hit the states this year for a ten day national tour. He came to teach and listen.

Sam Walton: Walton owner of WAL-MART and the ever-popular SAMS makes mega-bucks as he gives his customers the best bargains.

Jim and Tammy Bakker: The Bakkers hit the news this year, more than once. The two were involved with the scandalous PTL affairs. Along with tears from Tammy, Jimmy was exposed as having an affair with Playgirl Jessica Hahn.

Margaret Thatcher: Thatcher was elected Prime Minister of England for her third time. She is the first British Prime Minister to win three elections in a row.

Jessica McClure: McClure

fell into a well in Midland Tex. this past summer, which probably became one of the biggest news events of the year. The rescuers efforts paid off after two and a half days as McClure was pulled from the well and rushed to the hospital.

Oliver North: North became a national hero after telling his side of the Iran-Contra affairs.

Mikhail Gorbachev and Ronald Reagan: The two leaders met again this year and signed a historic arms treaty which aliminated intermediate and shorter range missles in Europe and Asia.

Gary Hart: Hart, a front runner for the 1988 presidential nomination, was exposed for having an affair with Donna Rice and withdrew his nomination. He reannounced his nomination early in January of 1988.

COMMON BOND

You race down the hall, collide with the trash can and when you do it's like they've never been gone. bump into the door to meet your friend and give them the scoop about what happened in third hour.

Friends are one of the key elements in high school life. Everyone has friends, but there are lots of types of friends. Here are some of them:

Lifetime Friends: This is the friend you've known since kindergarten and remembers the time you dumped your lunch tray all over the floor in third grade. These friends are important because you will share memories with them the rest of your life.

Casual Friends: These are the friends you scream "hi" to as you sprint down the hall in a futile attempt to make it to class on time. These friends are fun for sharing a laugh or just hang-

Faraway Friends: Friends that have moved away or you have moved away from. You don't see them every day but Boy/Girl Friends: This is the guy/girl you've been trying t get to notice you FOREVER. When they finally do "Voila you're in heaven. You spend lots of time together and you can't live without him/her.

Best Friends: These are the friends you laugh with, cry wit and scream at. They're always willing to help you out of a jar or cheer you up when you're depressed. Everyone should have a person they can share their deep, dark, secrets with because it makes the little things in life a whole lot easier. This is whi a best friend is for.

These are general categories of friends and they all ad something to our lives that would be lost without them. A tru friend is a gift you should never throw away. A phrase often associated with the noon hour. Whether it be eating out or in the cafeteria, lunch is a necessity. Growling stomachs lead students to places like Bill and Ruth's for the ham and cheese special, or Vito's for the pizza bar, and don't forget Wendy's Super Salad Bar. featuring Italian, Mexican food, and of course salad with all the fixings

Lunchtime Is MUNCHTIME

For those who are not able to go out to lunch because they do not have a ride or because of the ever-popular cafeteria deten-

"Let's do lunch." A common tion, there is always cafeteria cuisine to satisfy hungry stomachs. Such items as pizza pockets, salad, the student plate lunch and other nutritional goodies are available. But if these items do not tempt your tastebuds there is always the snack bar which offers candy bars and potato chips

ON THE JOB

work! It's a hassle; some people love it; some people hate it; but all people do it for the same reasons — MONEY. To-day's high prices force many students to work. With one movie ticket costing nearly $6.00, the price of entertainment alone can kill your weekly allowance. For some people extra money is needed for college. Others just like a little change jingling in their pockets

Another reason so many people hold down part-time jobs is for experience. A little basic knowledge goes a long way when you are choosing a career

Working also helps develop a sense of responsibility and forces the use of a little organization. Juggling a job and school can be difficult, but also beneficial and worthwhile.

HIGH FASHION

Our fashion models include: David Hembree, Sr., Sara Smit Sr., Colin McNeese, Jr., Leslie Hovis, Jr., Greg Demski, Sopl Kristin Fischer, Soph., Frankie Spain, Fr., Tena Schmon, Fr.

High fashion hits Memorial! The 1987-1988 school ye brought new fads and renewed classic clothing.

For girls, dress clothes include: long and short skirts at bright patterned sweaters. Casual clothes include: acid-washjeans, sweaters and shirts. But the hottest fashions came in she leather skirts and leather bomber jackets. Indian prints also it the fashion scenes. The fun in dressing came with accessoris scarfs, lace collars, and the ever popular silver jewelry.

For guys, dressier clothes remained basically the same — ni trousers and an exford shirt matched with a tie and maybe eve a jacket. Rugbys, sweatshirts and sweaters matched with jea (anyway you like 'em - black, grey, blue or acid-washed) hit big in casual clothing for the young man

If it's hot, hip and happening in the way of fashion it's sure be seen at Memorial

From the

REAL WORLD

You are sitting at your desk, it's sixth hour on a Friday. The clock slowly ticks, time is doing anything BUT flying. 5 minutes, 4, 3, 2, 1 BUZZ and the race is on. It is finally the weekend, a time for relaxation

Friday night starts with a football or basketball game, (depending on the season). Then it's off to Mazzio's or Peppers for a post-game meal or snack.

Saturday kicks off with cartoons in the morning, and then an early lunch. Saturday afternoon is filled with shopping, working, watching t.v., household chores, or building that model airplane you've been dying to start.

Saturday night finally arrives and it's time for the BIG DATE. Dinner and then a movie is a common date. But for some, ice skating downtown can be just as fun.

As the weekend winds down, Sunday arrives.

For some, Sunday begins at the crack of dawn for Church. Others sleep in, and wake up to the smell of paneakes coming from the kitchen. The day usually runs like a typical Saturday, until about 7:00 pm. The student realizes it is time to enter the real world again, because Mrs. Smith wants a 500 word essay on her desk from one of her "A" students

Top Left: Alicia Pool, Sr., David Lamb, Sr., and Cathy Douthitt, Jr., get excited for the big game. Middle: The gang's all ready and spirited for another Charger victory.

WIPEOUT

Homecoming 1987 was one that will be remembered for years. It was a week full of excitement, anxiety and most of all FUN. Student Council sponsored "Charger Week" to get everyone ready for the big night. Tuesday everyone wore the opposing team's colors (black and yellow) to "Hex the Tigers." On Wednesday the halls were filled with Charger's red, white and blue. Homecoming T-Shirt day was Thursday to get everyone ready to "Wipe out the Tigers." Friday was dress up day in honor of the Homecoming Court. Finally, a pep rally on Friday had everyone pumped for the game

The evening finally arrived, last minute touches were added to floats, attendants and escorts rushed around, and the football team warmed up. The class of 1988 was announced as winner of both the float contest and the spirit chain contest. Then the moment everyone had been waiting for finally arrived, and Kelly VanBurkleo was crowned Miss Memorial XXVI.

The Charger football team defeated the Talequah Tigers 7-3, and added another victory to their season

After the game a dance was sponsored by the senior class and Student Council. The place was packed and everyone had a blast. Homecoming '87 was truly a night to remember.

First place in the homecoming float contest went to the class of '88. The seniors won it with their "Torch the Tigers" float. Drums played and palm trees swayed while natives Chris Richardson, Tommy Keeter and Brady Schildknecht roasted the tiger

The sophomores' float "Wipe Out The Tigers," earned the class of '90 second place in the judging. "Charger Towels" helped clean up Tahlequah in the homecoming football game

The juniors' third place float "Catch a Wave" helped wipe out the tigers. While palm trees Lesa Everding and Heather Hawkins waved to the crowd

The fourth place freshman float "Wipcout '87" had Gumby showing his stuff and surfin' all over the Tahlequah Tigers

CHARGER SPIRIT

Charger Spirit is something we all take pride in. It is easy to see, just go to a football game, a pep rally, or any other school activity. Spirit week is usually one of Memorial's biggest displays of spirit, however, this year had something to be desired, SPIRIT. Many students felt its failure was due to the time of year. Spirit week was usually held in May, but this year it was changed to February. On Hawaiian day, many students had to wear long johns or sweats with their shorts, so another Hawasian day was planned for mid-May. The day was a huge success with lots of warm weather, allowing students to wear shorts without sweats. Also in May, the Junior and Senior girls practiced for two weeks for the Powder Puff game. Many fans came to the stadium to support their team. The final score of the game was 24-6, leaving the seniors the only team to win two straight years in a row. Meghan Montgomery, Denise Sharkey, and Kristen Korn scored the senior touchdowns. A

Kiss Ille Kate

- a take off of Shakespeare's comedy, "A Taming of the Shrew," was an enormous success. The musical centered around Tim Cornett (Fred Graham) and Stacy Lewis (Lilli Vanessi). The two portrayed a divorced couple struggling to hold together a Broadway production of "A Taming of the Shrew." Amidst the screaming, hitting, and hurling objects, were incredible song and dance scenes. After hours of hard work, Stacy Lewis performed a rendition of the song "So in Love" that was show stopping.

Tim Cornett put in an equally thrilling solo with the song, "Where is the Life." Kristy VanBurkleo (Lois Lane) and Craig Buffington (Bill Calhoun), co-starring as a couple in love, amused the audience with extraordinary singing and comic bantering. It must be said though, that Ed Poe and Chris Ribby stole the show with their portrayals of the gangsters. All in all it was a Bibby stole the show with their portrayals of the gangsters. ## Awards Assembly

This year's Senior Awards Assembly began with many class chants. It just so hap pened that the assembly and the Powder Puff game were scheduled on the sam day. Many awards and scholarships totaling over one million, seven hundred thou sand dollars were awarded to the 87-88 senior class. Many sports awards were presented to the school as a fine display of athletic achievement. The band also presented many awards that they had received throughout the year. The senior class was applicated for their many outstanding scholarships, loans and grants. This year was the first year that the administration presented six faculty members with awards for the many (over 20) fine years at Memorial. These teachers have sper many hours in preparing students for the college life. Congratulations to all thos seniors and teachers for their many fine achievements.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

This year's Senior Assembly was an enormous display of the class of 88's talent. The acts ranged from dancers, singers, and bands to a solo guitarist and a classical pianist. Between acts, the MC's Jenny McCoy and Kristin Korn, announced the Senior Superlatives. The winners were presented with the "S" awards made of 100% pure construction paper. It was in all, an excellent program, wrapping up an AWESOME senior year.

SENJOR BREAKJAST

The senior breakfast was held at the Marriott on the morning of June 1st. There was a strong turnout, especially from senior guys who heard it was all you can eat. The speaker, Mr. Chuck Jackson, spoke of believing in yourself and the power of positive thinking. Everyone listening was extremely moved. The best part of the breakfast though, was the slide show which gave glimpses of the class of 88's freshman year up to present. It was the climax of four years of hard work. GOOD LUCK, CLASS of 88'

Friday, May 27, 1988 — Finals are over and the seniors are running on nervous energy. The day was beautiful, with a high of 83 degrees. As the sun began to set and the day cooled off, seniors all over Tulsa stood before their mirrors and asked themselves one question - WHY CAN'T THIS NIGHT GO ON FOREVER?

This year's prom was a giant success. Held at the Marriott Hotel, over 400 people strutted their stuff. Many couples dined at restaurants such as Montague's, The Atlantic Sea Grill, LaCuisine, and The Warren Duck Club before attending prom. The girls looked absolutely stunning in their formals (ranging from mini-dresses to the southern-bell look). The guys put their best foot forward for prom, even if in some cases the foot was clad in a high top NIKE. The night was perfect and everyone danced the evening away to this year's prom theme, "Why Can't This Night Go on Forever."

Graduation '88

Con GRADulations

On Thursday, June 2, 1988 the Civic Center was filled with friends, relatives and 364 anxious seniors. For many students it was the last time we would all be together. There were many smiles and even some tears, but everyone will remember receiving their diplomas thinking "I made it!" The speaker was Mr. Robert Baker, Senior Vice President of American Airlines. Memorial High School graduation meant saying goodbye to the class of '88 and looking forward to what the class of '89 had to offer.

School Day Memories As we reach out our hands The diploma we grasp, While we think of the memories of the years in the past. Tears fill our eyes Because it's all gone, We're starting a new life. We have to move on We hope friends will keep in touch As the years pass us by Although it hurts inside. We'll try not to cry We think of kindergarten And our first day, Now we've reached the end We are going away. How do you say good-bye To friends who mean so much? Will there be time To sincerely keep in touch? You'll always have the memories of your school years from day one, Don't think of school as ending -

Think a new life has begun.

STUCO REACHING OUT TO SERVE

Most people think that the Student Council of-ficers don't do anything, but if you ask one of them they'll tell you different. Student Council is in charge of Homecoming which is always a great success. Memorial had its first bonfire and spon-sored a great dance with the senior class. STUCO participated in Adopt-A-Kid at Christmas and bought toys for needy children in Tulsa. Although students blame the officers for this year's "spirit week flop," but it was actually the fault of the weather. STUCO also oversees all elections in the school. They came to a heroic rescue during the senior class prom theme election. If you've ever walked down the main hall and seen the Charger of the Month pictures you are seeing the work of student council So, contrary to popular belief Student Council is a hard-working organization Steve Mitchell (right) shows that he is ready to reach out and serve. The Spanish, Latin, and German present the most "main course" foods ranging from enchiladas to lasagna. The French table is most likely to be the most popular table. Everyone knows that the French pasteries are irresistable. After dinner, everyone who came to the feast was entertained. There was the traditional French Can-Can dance and a German Oompah band. The Latin club had a great year. Not only did they take ate in the National Latin Exam, but they also had two state flicers in the Oklahoma Junior Classical League, The two iat held these positions were Ellen Mattes as secretary and olin McNeese as treasurer. Since Latin Club was so busy pordinating the help for the needy families at Christmas, ley did not have time for the traditional secret Santa. Inead they had Catullus Cupids for Valentine's Day and ceret Spooks for Halloween. They also had an ice skating arty at the end of January and participated in a bowl-a-thon. lso, at Christmas they sold Advent Calendars. State Latin onvention was in Stillwater and they plan to attend the Naonal Latin Convention this summer. Overall, this school ear has been a great success for the Latin Club.

Having Fun Around The World

Foreign Language Clubs! What are these clubs for? Many students join these clubs when they are taking a different language in school and want to meet others outside class to "speak their language." They are most likely trying to perfect their accent that they have worked on for hours. First year through fifth year levels are included in the clubs. Aside from all those early morning meetings that everyone loves getting up for, language clubs do a lot more than just conversing in a foreign language. This year the French, Spanish, and German clubs sold candy ranging from Tolberone chocolate to heart-shaped lollipops with a foreign message. Selling candy is the easiest way to make money. This money usually goes for parties for the members as well as International Feast. This feast is held every April and everyone in the school is invited. This feast is read April and everyone in the school is invited. This feast is sponsored by all the foreign language clubs. Every club has their own table and the members bring a variety of food from their country from which their language originates. Spanish club also aided some needy families in Tulsa for Christmas by holding a car wash earlier this year. Although the clubs were not as active as anticipated, they were still a big success. A

Surfs Go Out With a Splash

The twenty-six years of Memorial Surfs has come to an end. Every year the surfs has a show that has attracted much attention to Memorial. The long, hard practices, the bloodshot eyes, and the sopping wet hair was all for the annual show. This year the surfs "Surfing Through Time" was their last show A lot of practice for the surfs and help from the technical theater crew made the show a great success. The surf's show had an excellent turnout. We are all sad to see them go, but Coach Cairns said that she didn't want to go through it another year. Gets Into The Spirit

This year Pep Club was very active in supporting school spirit for Memorial which takes a lot of time and hard work During the fall season, Pep Club decorated the halls with banners and sold ribbons before and after school. Cups of candy and homemade cookies were just a few presents pep club gave to all the athletes. Also pep club decorated the football players rooms for the big homecoming game. During the winter and spring seasons, homemade cookies and gifts were given to the athletes. Pep Club also worked at the Tournament of Champions helping and supporting the Basketball teams. Other activities the club sponsored were the Weenie Eating Contest, Powder Puff (The famous football game held every spring where the junior girls attempt to play the ever-mighty SENIORS). Pep Club also was responsible for all the great pep assemblies. These assemblies were held to give recognition to the players, as well as getting them and the students all fired-up for the game. A

Slaving Studies

Picture if you will a quiet library full of books, en cyclopedias, a vertical file, and a card catalog. Then throw in that's five seniors, thousands of note and a card catalog. Then throw in deadlines, and what do you get? Pretain the interfections year on 50 why doesn't a first and beat the rush on the library? Because we all procrastinate in the beginning, seniors say, "I'll stick to the deadlines or even stay ahead of them so my paper won't be late." But what, inevitably, is eventually said.

I have seniors who don't get to bed until 100 a m. because they were rough drafts. Then they must find someone to made first hour, while they sate and first will be finished in time to a negligible be probably be the hardest thing to do all year. Valerie Whitson and Daniel Cibbons show their senior dedication by waiting almost too late to struggle to get finished in time by deadline.

highteen!! Time to say goodbye to your teenage years and hello to adulthood! Along with all the excitement comes responsibility. This responsibility includes voting For the class of 1988, voting becomes a new experience, especially since the first election we have a vote in is the Presidential election! But who is the most qualified to run the country? Am I a Democrat, Republican, or Independent? Should I even vote? These are just a few questions running through every adult's head! To think we have an opportunity to make this country survive—it's up to the people and us. Δ

We've Only Just Begun

The final chapter of twelve years of school—graduation. What does every senior need to graduate? (Besides a diploma?) Well, how about announcements, a cap and a gown? You need announcements to send to all of your relatives to let them know you've finally made it through high school. (They could also be a subtle hint that you're heading off to college and you need them to SEND MONEY?")

The cap and gown are important to graduation because it signifies dignity and pride of what you have ichieved. Besides it so tradition? This year's seniors soled to kep the caps in worstead of senioring it back with the gown, Morn can complete the tip dich pter of the baby book.

I've Got the Music in Me

Stacy Lewis - a first-rate name in entertainment, was the lead actress in the musical "Kiss Me Kate," playing opposite to Tim Cornett, Stacy puts her heart into her singing. Working about 25 hours a week on music alone, her hard work does pay of! She's been in concert chorus for two years, countless musicals for churches and school, sings at weddings, and plans to major in music. A

Rings Around the Juniors

What is there to look forward to in the Junior year? The ring. We finally get to order the class rings. It's a tough decision, but a fun one to make. There are so many styles, emblems, and colors to choose from.

Do you want to be like your best friend or have a style all your own? What about what to put on the sides? One side is already taken care of, it's the school mascot But what do you put on the other side? Well, there are sports, different clubs, NHS and religious symbols. Next the color of the stone has to be decided. You could stick with school colors, or go for your birthstone. Then there's shape - round or square. And the cut of the stone must be considered also; regular, diamond cut, quadra cut, and many others. Then what type of metal do vou want? You can choose from yellow or white gold, or imitations.

Last you consider money Do you want to go all out or wait and spend it on a college ring? It's quite a process, but the pride when you wear it is well worth the effort. A

The Test for Success

The symptoms range from not at all to a gnawing fear that grows as the end of the year draws near. This disease affects every junior — Tak-ing the ACT! When asked how they feel about taking the dreaded test, most juniors answer with the same word, "fear!" In most cases, the chances of being accepted to major colleges depends on high scores on the ACT. Some juniors feel that if they don't do well on the test, they won't be able to succeed in the future. The knowledge that they might fail or not meet their standards, is enough to make anyone nervous. Each class, however, survives the atrocious event

Friends From Afar

What's better than vacationing in another country? Traveling all year round visiting another school in a strange land. In March, Memorial had four visiting Japanese students. Yoshikazu Sasaki, Toshiyuki Konno, Hiroshi Minakata, Toshiko Tsunokake, Izumi Kawasaki, staying for a week, and one translator staying all year When interviewed, the guys favorite thing in the U.S. were American girls. In Japan, the students stay in one class all day long, the teachers change rooms. They can't drive or vote until they turn twenty years old. They ride bikes, trains, buses, or walk to school and on dates. To be able to come to visit, each went through extensive interviews, essays, and grade checks. They were each the "top dog at their schools." They hope to someday get to visit Australia. England or Germany. They all want to attend a university but admit that the admittance test is difficult. Two of the four guys play sports, one baseball, and the other some wrestling. All agreed they missed their lamily and rice the most while being away. From here they were going to California to visit Disneyland before returning to Japan.

Does anyone know the point of filling in countless ovals on what seems to be thousands of pages? Well, not just any ovals, but those on the PSAT/NMSQT. Taking the time to fill in your name, address, phone number, social security number, etc., can actually save your parents $40,000. Of the top 50,000 students, the top 15,000 are National Ment Semi-

Finalists and the bottom 35,000 are commended students. Then 13,500 of the Semi-Finalists become Finalists. Now you're asking what does $40,000 have to do with all of this. Well, colleges offer buckets of scholarships to Finalists. Oklahoma schools offer full tuition and some out of state schools do too. So, coloring in 5000 some-odd ovals and getting $40,000 for the job, that's about $8.00 on oval. Considering minimum wage is $3.35 an hour and it takes all of

I Wanna Be a Senior?

As the end of the year approaches, excitement builds. Seniors are excited to be out of high school, sophomores look forward to being "upperclassmen," and freshmen are just glad not to be freshmen anymore. But the juniors are transformed by the well-known disease: semior-tils. Most juniors have their rings and are just waiting for the end of May when the Senior Assembly denotes the last day they will rule the school. The seniors become lost in their own world, and the juniors take control. Juniors have their own expectations after watching the class of 1988 all year. When asked what they looked forward to most, and what positive changes they could make, these juniors replied with:

Pre-graduation activities and Promp* "More class spirit!" — Cynda Haynes "Having the best time of my life!"

"Make school more fun, something to look forward to." - Heather Akers

"Just being a Senior and all the recognition it brings."

"Organize a group to do something about the litter problem." — Scott D Smith Michelle Kumpe is giving Christy Vernetti a "How to be a senior" lesson \( \Delta \)

The class of 1990 has had a busy year sponsoring activities and selling items. In September, the sophomores sold Doughnuts before school. Just as school started, the class gave all teachers and administrators "Welcome Back to School" cards with a MHS pencil attached. This act of spirit brightened the staff's first week. The doughnut sales continued during the last week of October as well as the sale of the ever-popular Halloween-o-grams. Sophomores spirit shined through and their hard work paid off as the class of 1990 took second place in Memorial's Homecoming float contest. In November, once again the staff got Thanksgiving greetings with candy to boost spirits during the dreary fall. The sophomores had the honor of making the all school Victory Flag which is flown after all victories on the flag pole. To spruce up the spirit of each class, the sophomores sold class of '89-91 "on board" signs to be hung in your car. With Christmas approaching, the class adopted a needy family for the holidays and also made the staff feel special by sending Christmas Wishes with a candy cane. The class of 1990 shines with pride! #### A New Beginning

Been Been Been It's 5.30 a.m. September 8th and it's your st day at your new school. You roll out of bed and set your feet the floor. You rub your eyes, stretch, and feel your way to the throom. You flip on the light. While you wait for your eyes to ljust, you grab soap, shampoo, a towel, and head for the ower After getting out and drying off you go back to your om and pick out an outfit bought especially for school. After ushing your hair, so that not one is out of place, you head for e kitchen for your "first day of school breakfast" Mom's aiting in the kitchen with eggs, bacon, and juice You sit down, lax, and try to eat. After finishing, you put your plate in the nk and head for the bathroom one more time. You finish your st minute appearance check and grab your shiny new backpack d head for the door, not forgetting your lunch money, of urse. As you say goodbye to your mom she says, "I'm so proud my high school student." She gives you a peck on the check id you head for the bus stop. The bus ride wasn't too bad cause you sat with all your friends. The bus comes to a reeching stop in front of the huge high school building you ofially begin your first day at school. You've got what seems like inturies before class actually starts, so you walk around, cluting a school map given to you by the lady in the office, hunng for your classrooms. After sitting in classroms for six hours hd running around trying to find each class in five minutes ou're ready to go home. After the eternal bus ride home, you ive an after school snack waiting for you when you walk in the oor. Your mother asks you how your first day of school went, bu plop on the couch and begin to tell her about the new people he met, and about how the school is a monstrosity of a maze harles Whitson asks "Which way do I go?" 🛦

The Twinkie What is big, long, yellow, and kids without cars ade in it? Yes, you guessed it, it's the bus, other-ride in it? Yes, you guessed it, it's the bus, otherwise known as the big yellow twinkle. Getting up at the crack of dawn, waiting at the bus stop in twenty degree weather, for a bus to take you to school isn't exactly a wonderful thought, but that's the way it goes until you turn 16 years old. Unless your parents are kind enough to give you a ride to school However the bus isn't so bad. Just think of all the different people you meet. You meet freshmen, sophomores, and occasionally, on snowy or tey days, you meet upperclassmen. You meet fat ones, skinny ones, short ones, tall ones, blondes, brunettes, red heads, black ones and white ones Imagine never riding the bus and missing out on all these different types of people. Look at the bus as sort of a "melting pot". It doesn't discriminate against who it carries to school, unless you disobey the rules, then your privilege of meeting these people is terminated. Well, if you really think about it, riding the bus is sort of a necessary experience in your high school career.

Along with swimming Mr. Bond also enjoys sailing. He was even invited to the Olympic Sailing Trials. This invitation is framed and hanging in his office.

Mr. Bond's office is always open and he is always willing to listen to anything you may have to say. He really enjoys being at Memorial and he hopes that the pride and spirit, of the school will continue for years to come. A

ASSISTANTS

Mr. Duncan finally takes a break from supervising the lunch detention

Included in the Memorial High School staff are two great assistants. Nicholas Ritter and William Duncan These men share the job of assistant principal. Even though they are second in line, the school couldn't run without them. Mr. Duncan is the Assistant Principal for student management, and is in charge of the attendance and discipline of the overall student body. Mr. Ritter is the Assistant Principal for academic affairs. His duties include overseeing schedule changes, and progress reports and the many records that students hold

Mr. Ritter's busy work load increases in the Spring when he has to create a "new schedule" for 1500 students at Memorial next year. His job is to have as few conflicts as possible with the "Electives" for upperclassmen Fire drills, press releases, pop machines, custodial care, intercom control... things students take for granted but Mr. Duncan agonizes over for days (actually all year). These men really do help keep Memorial running smoothly.

THE COUNSELORS Are

the Guiding Lights

If it weren't for counselors where would we go for schedule changes, odd hours, or just to talk? They play a very important part in keeping Memorial's student body running smoothly. Their day consists of scheduling ACT's, SAT's, or PSAT's, helping students with their college choices, and dealing with the many parents. They have busy days filled with the hustle and bustle of the Memorial student life.

Beginning with Mrs. Lindsey, she has students A-E, and then Mr. Womack has F-Ld, Ms. Hutchins with Le-Rn and finally Mrs. Kiper with Rn-Z. Ending this great list of people is another one, Mrs. Gaines taking care of the discipline area of our school.

A TYPE ABOVE THE BEST

Many people work together to keep Memorial a well organized school. Without these individuals, our school would not function. The attendance secretaries keep track with students' absences and tardies. They also keep busy throughout the day with students checking in and out of school. The office secretaries keep the school running most efficiently. They make sure all are informed, by sending out the daily bulletin and school newsletters. The bookstore manager, otherwise known to all of us as Millie, runs a tight ship in the bookstore. She keeps records for many activities and selfs things such as experience and selfs th and sells things such as senior announcements and year-books. The Registrar, Mrs. Moore, handles all of the students' transcripts. We owe deep gratitude to all of these people for the many different and important things they do

IS ALTOGETHER ALL TOGETHER

English is unique in that it is the only subject required throughout all four years of high school. The English teachers stress the importance of grammar and writing. The struggle to attain these arts is long and hard. But when the art of communication is obtained, a student can feel proud of his efforts. English teachers hope that by the end of the year their students will have gained a greater knowledge of vocabulary, grammar, and writing. Every year students become flustered with reading, writing, and research. Students are required to read such great novels as Shakespeare's Hamler and MacBeth and Nathaniel Hawthorne's Scarlet Letter. Along with reading is the ever popular senior research paper. English classes help to prepare us for college and our professional life thereafter.

As teenagers, all we hear throughout our high school years is study, study, study. For some reason math always seems to be at the top of the list. We always hear that math is essential for later in life. Math is a part of our everyday, whether it's going to the grocery store or going to the office. math is used daily

There are different types of math. First is the basic math, from then it goes up to the more difficult classes such as trigonometry and calculus. In these different classes you can learn thengs from adding and subtracting to finding the area under a curve using definite integral calculus. Although the more difficult the class the more studying is required, it is very beneficial for your future.  $\Delta$

LANGUAGES GIVE

FOREIGN INSIGHT

Hearing and speaking as well as reading are important factors in learning a language. In today's world, there are many advantages to being bilingual or even polyglot Foreign languages help clear a person's mind of the cobwebs formed after learning the basics of his native language. Accordingly, a person must review the correct forms of his language in order to comprehend the structures of a language that is strange to his common knowledge.

Students seemed to take an increased interest in foreign languages, as was obvious by the highly attended French, Spanish, Latin, and German classes. Foreign language may not be some people's forte, but for those who enjoy learning them, the doors are wide open, revealing an enormous variety of opportunities available. A

BY STUDYING THE DARH AGES

History is the branch of knowledge that records and explains past events. Memorial's social studies department covers a diverse variety of formative classes. Students are required to take American and Oklahoma history to graduate. After that a student has his choice of a few different areas of history, such as Contemporary Affairs, Ancient and Medieval History, and American Government. The history teachers not only try to teach the events of the past and present, but also try to make history a functional part of the student' life. The present is formed by the past, and from the present we form the future. Since history has a tendency to repeat itself, it gives students a reasonable ability to forsee the future.

Speech can be an important class to a person who needs to express himself better, which is one of the things the students learn. Speech, Drama, and Debate and Contest Speech are the classes taken and enjoyed by many of the outgoing students of this school. In drama the students work on acting skills. Public speaking and oratory are a few of the things taught in speech. Expressing opinions and thoughts are but two of the qualities necessary for debate and contest speech. Students involved in theater took great pride in their accomplishments. Many of them hope to establish a theater-related career one day. △

The Memorial Vocal Music department joins together in harmony, not only musically, but in striving to make all of their concerts a success. Much hard work, dedication, and practice is put forth by the members of all the different choruses. The long rehearsals seem to always pay off as the choirs deliver concerts full of exciting musical pieces to their eager audiences, Memorials chorus department is led by Dan Call, who teaches four chorus classes and one extracurricular group. The musicals are said to be the best performed by high school students across the state. The show choir has performed across the state, Mr. Call not only teaches his chorus how to sing the music, but also what the music is about. This is what makes the Memorial Vocal Music Department one of the best in the area.

The Memorial Wind Ensemble and Orchestra have done great things this year. It is an elective class that is a mixture of people from Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Orchestra, and the Jazz Band. When you are a member of one of Memorial's bands it takes hard work and dedication because of the many performances and rehearsals during the year. The successfulness of the band is attributed not only to the band, but to its director Ken Baird. He helps his students to achieve many of their goals. In addition to the many hours of hard work, everyone in the band has a lot of fun. Fun, Fun, Fun came at the end of April when a trip to Orlando, Florida highlighted their year.

One of the most dreaded classes at Memorial is P.E. For those not in Varsity or band bey are required to take one year of P E. During this one year, you get the privilege to wear the fashionable gym uniforms. It is a cautiful T-shirt with red trim and MEMORIAL PHYS. ED, written in big red letters he nice blue polyester shorts are also decorated with MEMORIAL PHYS. ED.

Besides wearing these uniforms, you also play a variety of sports. Among these sports re flag football, basketball, and volleyball. Some guys even learn fencing.

Although it is not usually anyone's favorite class, it is a time for people to get some extense they would not normally get it gave students a chance to make thends. A so it is a hance for people to learn to play a sport that they wouldn't have learned otherwise. laybe it is dreaded by all, but like everything else there is a purpose for requiring P E.  $\Delta$

For many students turning sixteen means getting a driver's license. To prepare for that big day, and for problems that may arise later, students enroll in Driver's Ed.

Students taking Driver's Ed. learn about driving in three different ways: classroom lectures and films, driving simulations, and actual driving. The teachers feel that it is important to learn driving skills and the rules of the road, and simple mechanics of the car

Driver's Fd. does help your insurance rates, but it also helps the student in many other ways. Driver's Ed develops and improves the student's driving skills so they are better prepared to handle situations of the road. A School picture day is probably one of the most dreaded days of the school year, not only by students, but by the faculty and the PTA. Memorial's Junior Varsity football team gave their all this year. Their biggest setback was when their quarterback, Colin Lee was injured, and as a result they had to alternate between quarterbacks Colin Lee, Brent Williams, and Volta Mitchell. Despite the injuries, these three players made many passes that were received by Blake Kelley, Greg Demski, and Steve Hildebrand which resulted in impressive yardage gains. The Junior Varsity Chargers also gained yardage due to the talent and speed of running back Gary Brown Tight end Greg Demski said, "We didn't have that great of

Despite a Trying Season

Freshmen are Victorious

This year's freshman football team started off the season by winning three consecutive games. Having the biggest defensive front line in the city and one of the biggest offensive lines, the freshman Chargers were able to beat quite a few opponents, including Edison who was said to be one of the toughest teams to beat.

Quarterback Quante Oden said that their offense's success was due to fast runners, especially tailback Leon Powell. Fullback James Davis and tailback Bryan Byrd gained several yards by carrying the ball.

Through a Tough Season

SOFTBALL TRIUMPHS

The Memorial softball team, coached by Tom MacKenna, struggled through a long season. This young team finished up 8-11 which is actually quite impressive considering they had to battle back from a 0-6

Of the 19 players on the team only three were seniors and there were no juniors.

"At the start of the year none of us knew each other but we got a lot better as the season went on. Coach did a good job of working with us," said Kristin Korn, senior shortstop.

Coach MacKenna said one of the problems was that the team did not play at a competitive level during the summer

Memorial fought hard and gave their maximum effort all year, Once in the regionals, they were immediately matched up with the team from Muskogee High School, Memorial played very well for the first six innings and kept it close, but eventually lost 5-2

"We really didn't expect to win," said Korn, "but at the end of the game we were really proud and went down lighting."

Korn also said the younger team members have a lot of promise and will be great players. Kelli Whisman and Lisa Wadley will return as pitchers and the only players ost to graduation besides Korn will be second baseman Jenny McCoy and first baseman Rachel Samide.

This year's cross-country cam did great. With Coach P'Rourke's guidance the over cross-country team hade it to State and the girls' ross-country team won Concrence. Senior Gary loughton said, "Coach P'Rourke helped all of the parclassmen."

Senior Jennifer Maniss ommented on how her team orked together and suported each other. The girls' ross-country team set some oals, strived to achieve hich, and won at outerence

The boys' cross-country cam placed fourth in the egion with the remarkable cores of freshman Nate filler, who placed third, enior Gary Houghton, who placed sixteenth, and sophomore Chris Harjo, who placed twenty-eighth. Because the team did so well at Regionals, they qualified for State. Nate Miller placed sixteenth, Chris Harjo placed thirty-fifth, and Gary Houghton placed forty-first.

Both cross-country teams indicated individual self-discipline this year. Nate Miller said, "I try to do well so the team does well and that's all that counts." With an attitude like that, it's no wonder that the teams did so awesome

VARSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Winning With Style

The 1987-1988 Varsity Girls' Basketball team made many accomplishments throughout the season. They won the Consolation trophy at the Muskogee tournament, defeating Talequah-Sequoyah. Two major accomplishments were their victiories over Rogers, who went on to State, and Washington, who went on to Regionals. Although they lost against Rogers at the post-season tournament the Chargers put up a very good fight that Coach Davis was proud of.

The hardworking efforts put forth by the girls contributed to the success of the team. Shauntell Durant was a great point guard and Jennifer Olds was a consistent small forward. Diane Norman and LaRhonda Coarman contributed many counts to each users. However, every player Coleman contributed many points to each game. However, every player contributed greatly by putting forth great effort and using teamwork.

Coach Davis talked about the changes made this year. "This was the first year to play five on five full court basketball," she said. "In that respect it was a transition year but a very welcome change for myself and the young ladies on the team." A

With a constant smile and a glimmer of excitement the Varsity Cheerleaders gave added enthusiasm not only to the crowds, but to the teams as well. The spirit and pride this ed enthusiasm not only to the crowds, but to the teams as well. The spirit and pride this group shared was evident throughout the year as they cheered for Varisty Football and Girls' and Boys' Varisty Basketbal.

This year's Varisty squad consisted of seven seniors, two juniors, and three sophomores. The Cheerleaders were under the direction of sponsor Helen Gordon. To help in the organization, the squad was led by Captain Kathi Orvis, Co-Captain Brooke Ingram and Secretary/Treasures Alicia Pool.

To prepare for the year, the girls started out by stiending a Universal Cheerleading Association Camp. At camp, the cheerleaders learned side-lines chants, cheers, and dances. The squad came home from camp as Camp Champions. They received a trophy

During the summer, beginning in June, the school became the cheerleaders "home away from home." They could be found there practicing anywhere from two to three hours a day and providing ice cubes for the football team as they came in from practice.

Throughout the school year, the cheerleaders supported their teams by decorating the tocker room, making candy and cookie filled shoe boxes, and of course, cheering them. un to victory at the games

COMPETITION SQUAD TAKES 7th IN THE NATION

Florida Bound, This was the third year in a row that the cheerleaders qualified for Nationals in Orlando, Florida, They say "three's a charm" and it definitely was for this year's Competition Squad

The squad began practicing in August They practiced almost everyday for three months, preparing for Regionals. All of the long hours of practice and many bruises paid off. In November, the Competition Squad won their Regional Competition and became the Midwest Regional Grand Champions

Becoming Regional Champs didn't end the long practices. After a one month break, the squad started up again. Making it to the finals at Nationals was now their goal and they practiced as hard as they could to reach

The squad had many setbacks, "Over one-third of the squad wore either a brace or a splint. It was very bad on our morale," said senior Dawn Brady. This didn't seem to stop the Chargers. They beat over fifty other squads from all over the nation to qualify for one of the top eighteen spots in the finals The Competition Squad came home from Florida as the seventh top squad in the

Enthusiasm of Cheerleading Adds

an Extra Spark

Ready. Hit it ... These words, followed by an exciting cheer, were heard more than once during a sporting event. The girls who led the crowd in the theers were the Junior Varsity and Freshman Cheerleaders. Whether the leams were winning or losing, rain or shine, no matter what the size of the crowd, these spirited leaders were always present at the games. Time after time their cheering added an extra spark to the effort of the teams

The Junior Varsity squad cheered at JV Football games, Girls' and Boys' JV Basketball games, and Wrestling matches. They often filled cups and shoe boxes with cookies and candy to give their teams some extra support,

The Freshman squad led their teams on to victory at the Freshman Foothall games and the Girls' and Boys' Freshman Basketball games. They too made extra goodies to support their teams.

Both squads worked hard to support their teams and make the year as successful and possible. A

Memorial's Boys' and Girls' Swimming and Diving team made waves this year, having consecutive victories and sending some team members to State. The Boys took 9th in the Metro Tulsa Swim meet and 3rd in Conference. The boys continued to improve throughout the season Mike Cook and Jon Silberlicht went to State in diving and Randy Segnar qualified for State in swimming, Randy Segnar, Henry Melikin, Martin Rence, and Brady Schildknecht went to state for a relay

The Girls's swim team won everything possible. They took 4th in the Metro Tulsa Swim meet and 3rd in Conference. It was a small team, but they still managed to send two divers, Tamara Gleeson and Amy Carleton, to State. Amy Carleton was exceptional, taking 8th place

Coach Cairnes was said to have worked her teams and pushed them hard, but all of this work paid off in the end. "Their times went down," said Coach Cairnes, "and there was continual improvement throughout the season " A

GIRLS' SOCCER SHOOTS FOR THE GOAL

Youth was the key to this year's girls'soccer team. The team consisted of only four seniors and three juniors. The rest of the team were underclassmen.

"More underclassmen will mean a more experienced team in the years to come" said senior Laura Reece. "All of the underclassmen had a lot of spirit and really helped out the team."

One of the team's greatest accomplishments was beating Bishop Kelley "Our first scrimmage was against Kelley and we lost, so it was really important of us to beat them" said senior Susan Nelson. Needless to say the Chargers were pleased with their victory.

The coaches seemed to be pleased with their team's accomplishments.

"If the girls work as hard as they did this year, they'll be very competitive in future games" said Coach Stan Nelson.

Congratulations to the girls' soccer team for a great season!

BOYS' SOCCER TRIES FOR STATE

Stephen Snedden, shows off his soccer ability.

The 1988 boys' soccer team had their hopes set on making State. Unfortunately, they didn't reach their goal, but they did make some changes from last year "We had a better season than last year," said senior Tres Moore, "We had a better attitude toward the season." This attitude seemed to show in their playing When asked about his team, Coach Stan Nelson had this to say about his Chargers. "Senior Doug Ricks and Matt Maze contained the opponent's offense, allowing Kurt Pickle and Tres Moore to score. Juniors Derone Anderson, Matt McLemore, Seth Soltow, Scott Garrison, and Brett Knutson were the 'heavyweights' that made things happen."

"We probably had the best midfield lines in the district," said Moore, "We had the best juniors on the midfield line in the world!"

The highi ght of the Chargers season seemed to come from the under, assmen "We sent in the pups" and they did some kind of a job against overwhelming odds" said Coach Nelson, "Everyone was amazed at the mental and physical game these young men possessed."

Although the Chargers didn't reach their goals, they did learn and improve on their game. Congratulations to the Chargers on a job well done. &

GOLFERS STROKE TO THE TOP!

The 1988 Girls' and Boys' Gold team did a commendable job of being victorious over numerous opponents. The girls' team became Conference Tournament Champions with Kristen Ingram a second year State Tournament qualifier, Melissa Radke a State Tournament qualifer, and Elise Grayson a Conference Individual Champion.

The boys' golf team took a first place in the Metro Tournament, the Ron Streck-Cascia Hall Invitational, and the Muskogee Invitational. They also took third place at the State Tournament. Mike Phenicie, one of the most consistent players of the team, became overall State Champion, a milestone in his golfing career. Sophomore Joc Simmins, who had improved even more this year and is now the number one player for the boys, placed third in the top division.

Junior Heather Williams has held her position of number one for the team since her freshman year and has made great strides in improving her game. She placed seventh in the top division for girls at state.

Melann Jacobs, a player since her freshman year, is currently ranked second at Memorial, placed sixth in second division.

The surprising thing about this team is that the players all set personal and team goals for themselves and have completed all of their plans for this year. This has been achieved by the hard work they put in with Coach Dunlap who goes with them to all the tournaments and spends time helping to improve their skills and building confidence.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Strikes Back

The 1988 Varsity Baseball team had an incredible season ending with a 29-5 overall record, the second best in school history. Under Coach MacKenna's direction, the Chargers had a good start, winning 20 games in a row. The Chargers then proceeded to triumph over Jophin in the Bartlesville tournament and Jenks in the Memorial tournament.

There was a tremendous amount of talent on this year's team. Pitchers Brian Cook, Scott Lasiter, Robby Weaver, and Mike Hazel were responsible for striking many opponents out. Doug Drinen did a great job as catcher and Eddie Stauffer and Matt Griffin hit 4 home runs each

With all of the talent on the Varsity baseball team, the Chargers managed to place 2nd in the Regionals. First baseman Matt Griffin said, "It was a good year, but it didn't end the way we'd planned." A Classes '91, and '89 Survey Says . . .

"WHAT I LIKED MOST ABOUT THIS YEAR"

"I came to Memorial late but the second I got here everyone was so nice to me. All my new friends made it easy to fit in. Soccer was fun and I met some new friends from that. I love it here. I have wonderful teachers and more than enough great friends! The best thing to me about this year has been Young Life. I'm so glad I've been a part of it. The kids in it are great and I've learned a lot from

- Tori Sarampote '91

▲ "This year was better than I expected. It was really neat to meet a bunch of new people. The guys were incredible - especially the older ones. My freshman year has been a blast! I can't wait until I'm a SENIOR !!"

- Allison Carona '91

"Meeting new people made this year incredible!"

- Todd Rippy '91

♥ "... the new friends I have made"

and getting to go to National's in Ortando, Floridalt

Rene Pillow '90 ▲ "Mr Bond's morning announcements'

- Todd Worley '89

■ "This year, to me, was much better than last year I think." that Mr. Bond did a great job and it seemed like things went a lot smoother than last year. The year started off with tremendous excitement. Varsity Football took All City and went to State Finals. It continued when Varsity Basketball also went to State Finals along with the cheerleaders winning 7th in the nation in the UCA Championships in Orlando Final This were were the best and I'm sure pert year will do, Fla. This year was the best, and I'm sure next year will be even better."

- Casey Stowe '90

▲ "The best thing about this year is a tie between taking the SAT/ACT and the thirteen extra minutes added on to the end of the day. I can't decide which I enjoyed most. No, seriously, the best thing about this year was Young Life. Clubs, campaigners and Fin-n-feather were a total blast. They kept the year from getting too boring.

- Jonathan Bayles '89

▲ "... my friends are the people who made everything so great!" - Michelle Simmons '89

"I really liked this year a lot. It was greateing an upperclassman even though some f the seniors still looked down on us. I'm eally looking forward to being a Schior, i oved going to Young Life, football and asketball games, parties, and the park. Pep asemblies were fun too. We got to get out of lass and everyone had tons more spirit!!"

- Anne Montesano '89

SENIORS 1988

NOTHING'S GONNA STOP US NOW

September 2, 1984 — Nearly 450 freshmen flooded the halls of Memorial. Yes, members of the class of 1988 were finally HIGH SCHOOLERS! For many this was a long-awaited day, for others ... well let's just say not everyone was as enthusiastic. Freshmen soon learned that cafeteria food was better in high school, but school buses didn't run any faster. However, there were Friday night football games, dances and homecoming floats. All, in all being a freshman wasn't so bad after

1985-86 -

SOPHOMORES! What a year! We weren't freshmen now but we weren't exactly upperclassmen yet either. School was about the same as last year - still lots of homework and lots of tests. But this year the biggest test for many came outside of school - Yes, you guessed it — the DRIVER'S test. The sophomores finally hit the streets (and everyone else got off them). The class of '88 finally escaped the cafeteria, and got rid of the fear of someone seeing mom drop them off. As sophomores we showed a lot of pride and potential, little did we know how much our potential would grow as seniors.

1986-87 — Ahh, yes. Another exciting year at Memorial begins and the class of '88 (now juniors) was ready. It was time to take a look around at colleges and careers. The SAT's and ACT's were waiting to be taken and the 8 00 tests rolled around awfully early Saturday mornings.

Junior year was great but by the end we were all ready to be

1988 — SENIORS RULE<sup>111</sup>
No doubt about it seniors are the best, and the class of '88 added new meaning to the words. This year Chargers excelled in Academics, Music and Athletics (Memorial's sports teams did better than they had in years!).

When school began September 7, cries of "I can't believe we're seniors!" came from all directions. There was plenty of excitement in the fall with a "Roast the Weenies" bonfire, homecoming plans, and the football team's berth in the state finals

The long winter months stretched ahead and seniors were determined to make the best of them. Now was the time to make final college and job choices. It was becoming apparent that there was life after high school.

Spring arrived and with it the onset of that infamous disease - SENIORITS. The countdown began (i.e. only 2 months, 3 days, 4 hours and 27 minutes until we graduate). Caps and gowns were ordered, pictures made, finals taken and now we were ready. It all started off with Prom - May 27, Tulsa Marriot, what a BLAST! Next it was Vespers - May 29, First Presbyteman Church. This was the first time we donned our caps and gowns. Now we felt and looked like seniors.

Well, after years of waiting the big day finally arrived -GRADUATION!! June 2, 1988. Tulsa Convention Center. This was the last time we would be together as a class. As we sat on the floor of the convention center waiting for our names to be called we each had things to reminisce about - games, tests, partie, trips. High School was almost over and as the Class of 1988 was finally pronounced graduates there were yells, tears and laughter. We had done it!! Now all we can say is LOOK OUT WORLD, HERE WE COME!!!

We Made It Through

A TIME OF CHANGE

It happens every year. There is no use in trying to prevent it, for it is inevitable. By early May, and with summer in sight, even the most diehard teachers and students find their thoughts turning away from the present to reflect on the past year.

1987-88 was a year of reorganization — a new principal, vice-principal, faculty, and students. Teachers moved to new rooms and freshmen adjusted to the older crowd.

But more importantly, we look back, and we see that we made the transition. We adapted and changed to fit the new schedules and environment.

These changes are just the beginning of a new era at Memorial, 1987-88 seemed to posess a little bit of everything, enveloping Memorial in a Time of Change.

I securble a holis more than test words and potential to our fit of past year. As a walling the case ps had to our the past year. As a walling the can be administed by the excitement, humor, and turn laws not to the post own accompanies and the result of the more moments and the result of add work that were into this book. The heater dead mest and missing picture all come to rether to make IAPS a word as his book. The dead cation of the story of a some in sense to the first of the second to the story of a seneral line.

The kill to the this opportunity to thank the staff to the rendless and entire and from or acceptance on that thousands kill wish you all the best of acceptance and Condibless!

The TAPS XXVI Staff would like to express their extreme appreciation to the following people: Our sponsor, Mrs. Lentz, for her patience with late deadlines, repetitive questions and obnoxious behavior! Terye Meyers, our representative from Taylor Publishing Co. for coming out to Memorial numerous times, ordering all of our materials, and giving advice for some incredible ideas! Jim Curtis of Creative Photography for all of his time and patience with the developing, printing, and cropping of our film. Mr. Bond for cooperating and understanding the student's wants for an outstanding yearbook. Caryn Cox for the cover artwork. And a special thanks to all of the Memorial teachers for allowing us to interrupt their classes for pictures and interviews. We hope you enjoy YOUR 1987-88 TAPS. It was made with you in mind! P.S. In case you were wondering about the significance of the triangles to the theme "A Time Of Change," we refer to those triangles as Delta symbols, which stand for "change of."
